A wide environmental campaign, through broadcasting three short films and displaying mottos on environment protection across Kurdistan, was another achievement in 2014.

Last but not least, Rwanga Annual Awards for the talented Kurdish youth, aged fifteen to twenty five, was another outstanding project through which twenty one talented young people in the categories of painting, photography, short film, poetry, short story, education and scientific innovation were awarded with cash grant, trophies and medals.

Iraqi Displaced People

Since the beginning of the emergency situation in Iraq and Kurdistan, following the attacks of the terrorist groups in the beginning of June 2014, Rwanga Foundation was one of the first humanitarian organizations present on the ground. 257,033 Yazidi, Christian, Arab, Turkomen and Kurdish displaced people were provided with emergency relief food and non-food items including hot meals, bread, water, juice, canned fish, canned beans, baby milk, baby diapers, women sanitary napkins, blankets, mattresses, cooking sets, clothes, and shoes. Rwanga Foundation's committed field teams worked day and night to help the displaced people at the bordering points, on Sinjar (Shingal) mountain, in camps as well as towns and villages across Kurdistan.
